

The Bridge Builders Luncheon presents Comedy Out of Hand

an online event benefitting Bridges for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing!

Featuring | Harold Foxx

Wednesday, April 28th | 11:30 a.m. | ONLINE via ZOOM

Harold Eugene Catron, Jr., better known by his stage name Harold Foxx, is an American theatre, film, television actor and comedian who happens to be Deaf. He launched 'The Harold Foxx Show,' an online entertainment brand featuring comedy skits, which has gained over 80,000 followers on various social media platforms. Harold was born in Memphis, Tennessee and a graduate of White Station High School, Class of 1999, and went on to graduate from Gallaudet University where he also played football.

Foxx is best known for his stand-up comedy, which he has performed across the nation in D.C., Maryland, Michigan, St. Louis, Los Angeles, Jamaica, and most notably, at Busboys & Poets, the National Black Deaf Advocates conference, Theatre of Note (Hollywood), and the National Association of the Deaf. Foxx has been involved in numerous film, television, and stage productions, including "The Actor Whisperer," "For My Woman," "Audism Unveiled," Deaf West Theatre and Pasadena Playhouse's production of "Our Town", and Playwrights Horizons' "I Was Most Alive With You" (NYC Off Broadway Production). Foxx currently resides in Los Angeles, California, where he is training with The Groundlings, the prestigious improvisation and sketch comedy theatre & school based in Los Angeles.

Foxx will also offer an exclusive evening set via ZOOM on April 28th at 6:30 p.m. CST

The Bridge Builders Luncheon presents Comedy Out of Hand

an online event benefitting Bridges for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing!

Wednesday, April 28th | 11:30 a.m. CST | ONLINE via ZOOM

Take just 75 minutes out of your day and learn more about the incredible D/deaf, hard of hearing, and deaf-blind communities and the important programs and services you make possible in these communities each and every day. Sponsors will have the option to purchase a delicious, boxed meal by Bacon and Caviar that can be delivered to your guests prior to the luncheon. There is no cost to attend. Each guest will have the opportunity to make a personal gift or pledge during the event. For more information, please email Mimi Fondren at mimi@bridgesfordeafandhh.org.

We ask that all sponsors be willing to commit one day of their social media to Bridges for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing.
